JAMES T. SPILLMAN, A.B.

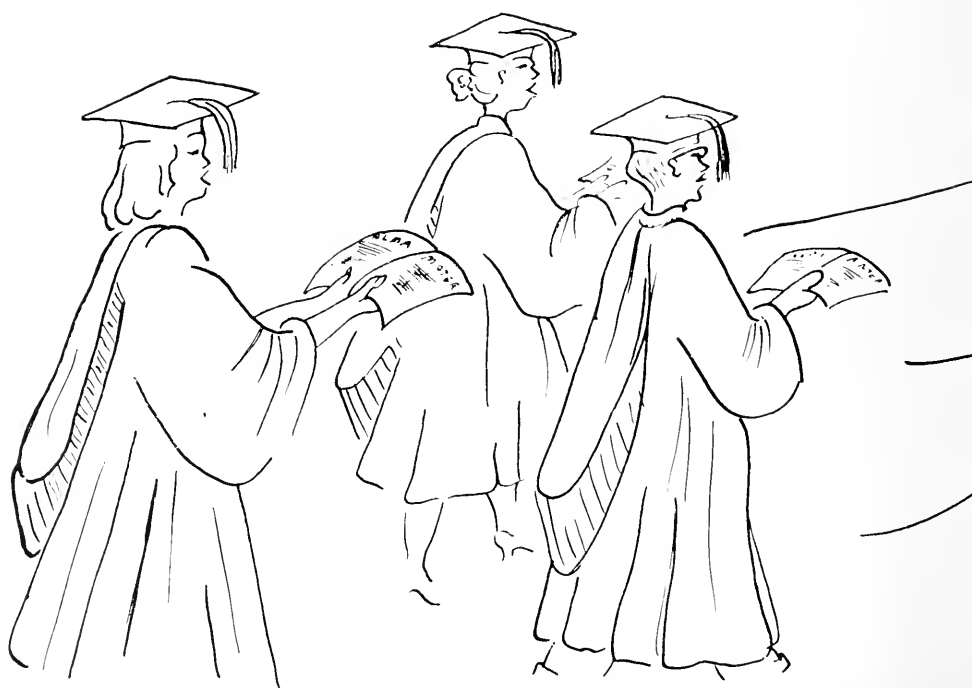

Assistant Bursar

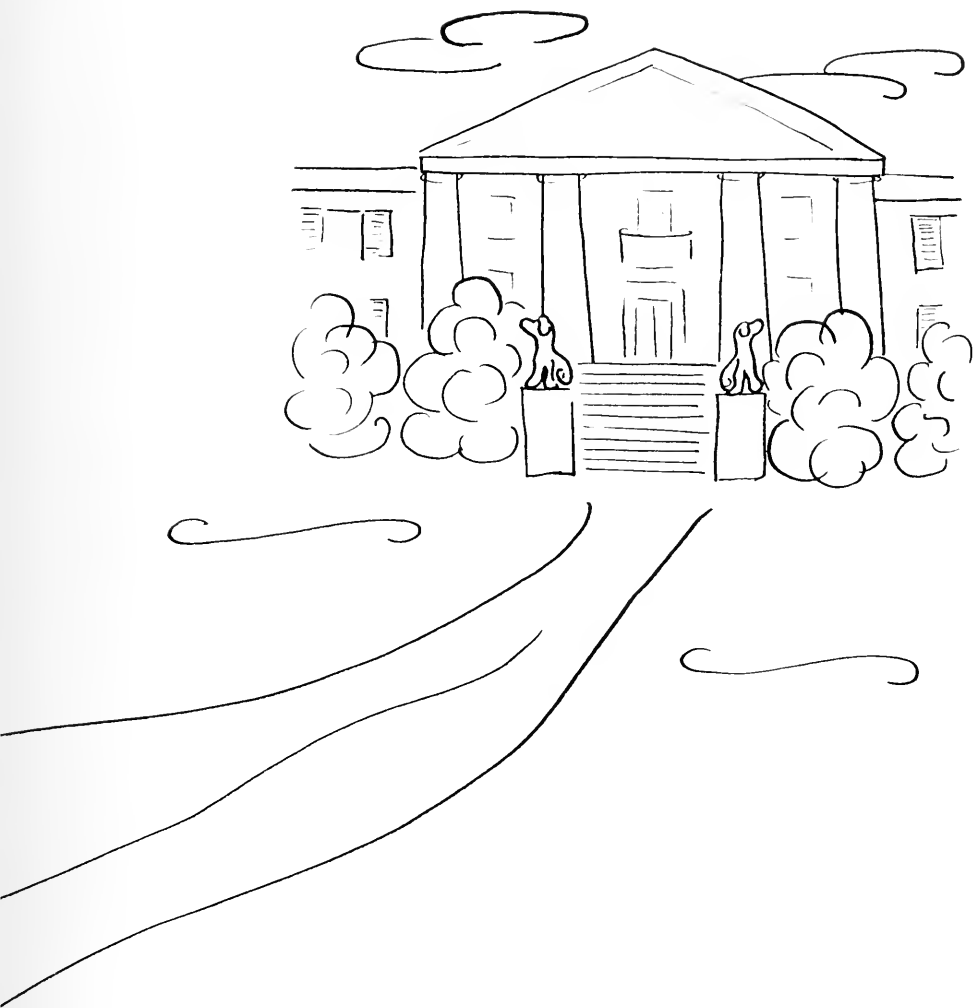

Dedication

His capacity as assistant bursar means we can find him at the student bank. There in a most patient genial manner he exerts untiring efforts to fulfill our banking needs. In his numerous catalogues and guides he has the answer to all our questions and problems concerned with transportation and travel. His warmth and sincerity have won the respect not only of the student body, but also of every person who comes in contact with the College through him. With grateful appreciation for your twenty-four years of devoted service to Mary Baldwin, we the editors dedicate the 1954 BLUE-STOCKING to you, Mr. James T. Spillman.

Thou wast born of dreams, Mary Baldwin, Mary Baldwin,
Woman's dreams of love and true desire;
Conqueror's dreams with passion's ardor glowing,
Caught from Truth's undying, pure white fire.
Born to live, to perish never,
To inspire to high endeavor,
To uphold that light forever,
Mary Baldwin.

IN MEMORIAM

Not because Janie died,
But because she lived, loved and was loved;
Not because the maimer, crippler, polio killed,
But because her living somehow made our lives happier;
Not because it is proper and usually done,
But because she is gone and we miss her
Do we offer this.

"For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen."

The Student Government Association

JEANNE TAYLOR
President

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

On October 23, 1929, the Board of Trustees of Mary Baldwin College presented to the student body through the administration, the charter of student government. This meant that the students now had their own elected governing body and that each student was considered mature enough to assume responsibility for her actions.

Since that time, the charter of Student Government has been presented to the student body each year. With each presentation of the charter, the Student Government Association has become a more important and vital part of the college community.

This year represents the twenty-fifth anniversary of Student Government on our campus. Since that first year, the Student Government Association has grown in many aspects and now has more responsibilities than that of a governing body. Many groups on campus have become Student Government organizations and are under the auspices of the Student Council. These organizations are the Board of Review, the Social Committee, the Big Sisters, the Club Committee, the Cabin Committee, and the Nook Committee.

The success of these past twenty-five years of the Student Government Association cannot be attributed to one group. It has come about only through the efforts and cooperation of the administration, the student council, and the student body. With the continual efforts and cooperation of these groups, the Student Government Association can become an even more meaningful part of the college community in the future.

Board of Review

The Board of Review is a Student Government Organization composed of five student members appointed by the President of Student Government and three faculty members appointed by the President of the College; the Sophomore Representative on the Student Council and the Dean of Students are members ex officio. The duties of this Board are: to check on the proper functioning of clubs, to approve new organizations, to approve money-making projects of campus organizations, and to schedule Friday assembly programs.

Big Sisters

This year the Big Sisters and the Freshmen Advisors were combined into one group, known as the Big Sisters, and it was composed of about 40 members. Each girl had two little sisters in her own dorm. It was the job of the Big Sister to help her freshmen adjust to the life of the college community, to make her happy and contented as possible and most of all, to be a real friend and confidant. The Big Sisters worked closely with the house president and it proved to be a great help in the freshman orientation program.

Social Committee

Standing: Gale Crews, Patty Tipton, Celia Wainwright, Mary Mae Hutcheson, Lucia Whitehead, Nancy Oliver.
Seated: Norma Weiss, Judy Vann, Jay Caldwell, Chairman, Joan Nanninga, Joanne Crouch.

The Social Committee provides a major part of all the social activities which take place on campus. This committee consists of four representatives from each class. Two of these representatives are nominated by their class; the other two, appointed. The chairman of the committee is elected by the student body. The Christmas and Spring dances are the biggest events on the social calendar. Other less formal parties for the girls and their dates are also planned. Before concerts and plays coffee is served in the lounge of the Activities Building, a custom which we like very much. Tea is served on cold Sunday afternoons.

Executive Committee

Left to Right: Ann Shaw, Jeanne Taylor, Jeanette Fisher, Gwen Cooper, Ann L. Robinson.

The Executive Committee is a Student Government Organization composed of the six members of the Advisory Board and five student members. The students are the President of the Student Council and other Council members appointed by her. The duties of this group are: to consider and decide all matters referred to it by the Student Council, to study all matters relating to the constitution, by-laws, and regulations of the Student Government Association, to make suggestions for changes in the regulations to the Student Council, and to prepare and assist in editing the Handbook before the school year ends.

Nook Committee

Chairman Joanne Crouch
Committee Patty Tipton,
 Martha Richardson

The nook, located in the King Building, provides a chance for students to prove their talents at cooking. They have a great deal of fun getting a crowd together and cooking a meal for themselves. It is the responsibility of the committee to see that the nook is kept clean and to look after its various needs. This year the project was getting new silver and the much needed kitchenware.

Cabin Committee

Chairman Dotty Hobby
Committee Celia Wainwright,
 Sally Lou Smith, Pat Bowie

Beginning early in the fall, the Cabin Committee set out for Chip-Inn to make a complete renovation of the cabin. A cheerful beige living room with the rustic stone fireplace, accented by a brass plate and horse-shoes as an original detail and a bright yellow kitchen, set off by gay print curtains were the results of much hard labor. Many groups enjoyed fall outings at the cabin and the springtime proved equally pleasurable.

Club Committee

Chairman Nancy Rawles
Committee Dolly Adair,
 Emmie Faber, Dotty Hayden, Johanna Paul, Joanne Crouch, Sue Boss.

"Let's go to the club" is a familiar echo on campus, and not even the new dorm lounges will ever take the place of the club. Not only at meal time, but from early morn til late at night, the club is the scene of frequent bridge sessions, quick snacks, and get-togethers. The juke box and TV lure many of the girls and their dates to enjoy a little relaxation and leisure. The Club Committee sees that all of this runs smoothly as possible and that the club itself stays clean and neat.

The Young Women's Christian Association

MARY ANN TAYLOR

President

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

The Y. W. C. A., is the oldest student organization on the Mary Baldwin campus, and is a member of the National Student Y. W. C. A. The Y was first organized at Mary Baldwin in May 1894, and since that time has grown and developed into an important religious organization on the campus.

Upon entrance into the college each student is encouraged to participate in the activities of the Y. W. C. A. By providing a program of worship, study and action, the Y seeks to give every student an opportunity to put Christianity into action.

Two of the most outstanding projects of the year were Community Service Day and the Freshman Y Project. The freshman sold homemade fudge and sandwiches in the dorms; in this way they collected $50.00 for CARE packages for Korea.

Each Sunday evening there is Vesper Service which is led by students, faculty, or visiting speakers; each Wednesday night there are short periods of devotions in the dorms. Through projects in the community at VSDB, Effie Ann Johnson Day Nursery, Western State Hospital, and Betty Bickle Home one learns the meaning of Christian Service. Peanut Week helps during that pre-exam slump. Get-togethers throughout the year for various purposes aid in the integration of the college community.

A highlight of every year is Religious Emphasis Week. This year Mr. M. C. MacQueen from Clinton, North Carolina was the leader. The theme—Communism vs. Christianity—proved to be quite timely and a fitting climax to the year's work.

Fine Arts Club

President Ida Sumner
Vice-President Daphne Brown
Secretary Patty Tipton
Treasurer Elaine Baldwin
Publicity Lois Morrison
Art Director Jan Mitchell
Dance Director Ann Ritchie
Drama Director Page Smith
Music Director Ann Covin

Fine Arts Club keeps its members well-informed in the fields of art, dance, drama and music. This group replaced and expanded the work of former arts clubs. Each member participated in at least one performance or exhibit. Besides supporting and publishing campus arts events, the club sponsored a series of artistic and foreign films.

Writers' Club

President Lee Pierce
Vice-President and Publicity
Manager Cynthia Hutcheson
Secretary-Treasurer ... Susan Andes

The newly formed Writers' Club chose as its aim the encouragement of creative writing. At its meetings, the members read aloud some of their short stories and then criticized them. This was done at different restaurants in and around Staunton in an attempt to gain a "Bohemian atmosphere". As the club's big project of the year, the members wrote a short play using as its basis the lyrics to the old folk tune, "Hullabaloo Belay". All members took part in writing the dialogue and in preparing the staging.

Book Club

President Liz DeLoach
Vice-President Marian Hollingsworth
Secretary-Treasurer ... Alma McCue
Publicity Anne Goole

The Book Club is organized chiefly for the purpose of broadening the reading range of the members. During the course of the year programs were based upon John Steinbeck, Somerset Maugham, Dylan Thomas, and other prominent modern authors. In preparation for each meeting, members previously read selections by the author to be discussed. The annual project of the club consisted in donating to the library several volumes of current interest in fiction.

Organizations

Gardeners' Club

President Gale Crews
Vice-President Lili Malone
Secretary Celia Wainwright
Treasurer Joan Nannings
Program Chairman ... Ono Lescure

The twofold purpose of the Gardeners' Club is to learn about flowers, the arrangement of them, and also to learn the actual planting process of the various kinds. The fall project was to plant bulbs and ivy around Riddle Dormitory according to the plan drawn by a landscape architect. During the winter flower arrangements were made, based on a lecture by one of the Stamford Garden Club members. They were used for Christmas decorations in various places on campus.

Hobbies and Crafts

President Kemp Jamison
Vice-President Pat Bowie
Secretary Alme Powers
Treasurer Betsy Watson
Program Chairman .. Mardi Cowles

The Hobbies and Crafts Club has made various articles this year. Among them were Christmas sachets, book marks, wool dolls, and earrings. Aside from these club crafts, individuals made Christmas candles, painted trays, letter boxes, and book ends. At the end of the year's work a display was held of all the work done in the Little Art Gallery. The meetings were held in the Nursery School Building. Miss Ruth Reid was the sponsor.

Day Student Club

President Lee Yeakley
Vice-President .. Mary Stuart Lewis
Secretary Margaret Boyd Berry
Treasurer Katy Keller

To allow the day students an opportunity to participate as a group in college functions is the purpose of the Day Student Club. This year there are sixteen members of the club. Various social activities are held throughout the year; the most significant being the informal faculty tea. Each year the club serves the community in managing the sale of Easter Bibles for the benefit of crippled children. The sponsor of the club, Miss Fannie Strauss, is always ready with helpful ideas and suggestions.

Student

Beta Beta Beta

President Adelle Virtue
Secretary Chlo Lescure

A genuine interest in biology and scientific truth must be had by each member of the Beta Beta Beta, a National Biological Fraternity. The club went to the Washington Zoo in the fall and later visited a local collection of parakeets. They also sponsored the film Nature's Half Acre, which proved to be fascinating for the entire college. Further interest was aroused by the Sigma Psi Series at the University of Virginia.

Le Cercle Francais

President Betty Boyer
Vice-President Sally Lou Smith
Secretary Sue Wilson
Treasurer Diane Hutchinson
Program Chairman Judy Gabel
Publicity Barbara Ott

The aim of the French Club is to furnish an opportunity for French students to practice and perfect their French. As a result these students have a clearer and more intimate knowledge of the culture of France. Raymonde Samaran, a native of France, was invaluable in her advisory capacity. Club meetings consisted of discussions and recreation strictly in the French manner. For each French holiday the club celebrated with typical festivities and refreshments.

Huapango

President Claire Fontaine
Vice-President Mary Colonna
Secretary Mary Ann Walker
Treasurer Aline Powers
Publicity Chairman Helen Thompson
Sponsors Miss Penn,
 Magdalena Garcia

"Huapango", the Spanish Club, has as its purpose the encouragement of interest in the Spanish language, life, customs, and literature. In order to carry out this purpose, members participate in Spanish games, parties, dramatic skits, and discussions. The meetings also give an opportunity for songs and conversation in Spanish. This year the club presented the Christmas chapel program in which a typical Mexican celebration of Christmas was given.

Organizations

Glee Club

President Johanna Paul
Secretary-Treasurer Gale Crews
Accompanist Grace Mizuno
Librarian Reid Strickland
Publicity Lois Morrison

The Glee Club has been quite active this year with various performances both with nearby men's schools and the Glee Club itself. The most outstanding accomplishment was the production of the operetta, Down in the Valley, with the W. & L. Glee Club. A return trip was made in the spring to the National Cathedral in Washington. The Glee Club members are selected from the student body in a series of try-outs at the beginning of the school year and is successfully directed by Mr. Gordon Page.

International Relations Club

President Judy Vann
Vice-President Fish Fowlkes
Secretary-Treasurer .. Shelby Penn

The International Relations Club is sponsored on the campus by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. This club promotes interest, understanding and activity in current world affairs—both domestic and foreign. The programs include talks given by students, outside speakers, and faculty members. The programs emphasized the world-wide importance of the United Nations. The sponsor, Miss Lillian Rulescal, is responsible for many helpful ideas and suggestions.

The American Guild of Organists

President ... Margaret Boyd Berry
Secretary-Treasurer ... Nancy Payne

The American Guild of Organists is a national organization. Guild student groups, such as the Mary Baldwin group, may be organized in colleges and schools having an organ department. Meetings are held once a month at which time members play for each other and exchange ideas. Sometimes the college chapter meets with the Staunton chapter of the Guild. Highlights of the year have been a joint meeting with the Madison Chapter, the recital of Mr. Hicks of Madison College and the dinner given by the Staunton Guild for organists and their ministers. Miss Ruth McNeil is the sponsor.

Chapel Choir

The Chapel Choir consists of selected voices from the Glee Club. The organization fulfills an important part in our Chapel Services during the week and sings in special services throughout the year. In February they made public appearances in Winston-Salem and Charlotte, North Carolina. Mr. Gordon Page is the director and Nancy Buston, the accompanist.

Eta Beta Pis

The Eta Beta Pi "Sorority" is composed of those girls who serve in the dining room. Under the leadership of Jeanette Fisher the girls set the tables and bring in the food during the meals. Theirs is a time consuming job but they do it with a smile and deserve our heartiest thanks for their patience and the understanding with which they do their work.

The Bluestocking

The BLUESTOCKING, the annual of Mary Baldwin College, is published by the Junior Class. The editor and business manager are elected by the student body and they, in turn, select their staff consisting of juniors, except for a representative from the freshman and sophomore classes.

We would like to extend our deepest gratitude and respect to our most loyal faculty advisor and sponsor, Miss Fannie Strauss. Without her guidance and patience this annual would have been an impossibility.

With this annual, we hope that each senior will always regard it as a symbol that represents the intangible spirit of college life and with it will recall the pleasant memories of this year, 1953-1954.

And to the student body at large, we trust that we have fulfilled the purpose of an annual—that of presenting the history of the school year including faculty, classes, groups, and organizations. And we hope that with this presentation each of you will always regard this year as the best and hold it high in your memories.

Campus Comments

A newspaper as a source of news only would be of little use to a small college like Mary Baldwin. Therefore, the staff of Campus Comments this year has tried to enlarge the scope of the paper's coverage to include student opinion, feature articles, news of other colleges, and other articles, which they feel will enrich student life and mold campus thought.

We have worked to make the paper a real and vital force in campus activity. It does not represent any one group or organization, but tries to serve all facets of the college equally. Yet we have not been afraid to argue for what we believe to be right when the occasion arose.

This year many of our policies and actions have been undertaken as a result of work done by the newly formed Publications Board, an organization which we believe will grow in vitality and prestige in future years, making all the Mary Baldwin publications a source of pride to the student body.

The Miscellany

This year the by-word of the Miscellany might be said to be "variety". The staff has worked hard at acquiring material that would be diversified, interesting and worthwhile. The Miscellany has contained editorials, poems, stories, articles, and features of a humorous nature.

The purpose of the magazine is to give an outlet to the literary creations and the artistic work of the students. Each member of the staff has an opportunity to work on editing, copy-reading, layout, and the satisfaction of seeing her work come to life.

The Miscellany is the students' magazine and caters to the tastes and interests of the school. It tries to publish material of lasting interest. This has been one of its goals since the first appearance of the magazine in 1899.

Miss Catherine Mims is the advisor and consultant for the Miscellany.

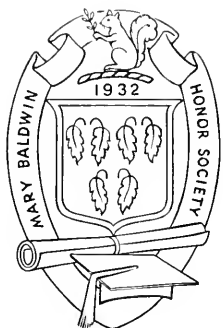

The Miscellany is a member of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press.

Mary Baldwin Honor Society

The college honor society, organized by the faculty in 1932, recognizes and encourages sound scholarship. A limited number of seniors are elected each May to membership in the society. The annual meeting is held during the commencement season when newly elected members are initiated. Alumnae members are invited to be present for this special meeting.

Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award

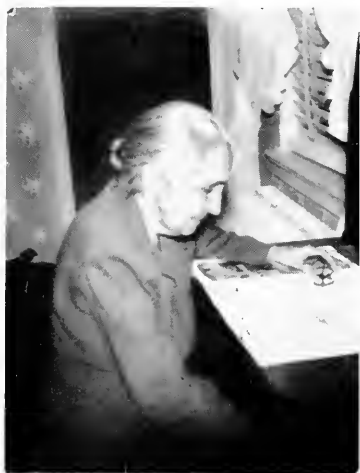

The New York Southern Society and Mary Baldwin College have jointly arranged for the presentation of two medallions at Commencement each year to those who, because of the quality of their lives, are judged to be appropriate recipients of the award. While the award recognizes accomplishment, unselfish service is the fundamental principle, as this was the keynote of the life of Algernon Sydney Sullivan, whose name the award bears.

Usually one medallion is presented to a member of the graduating class and one to some other person who has interest in and association with the College.

At the 1953 Commencement Exercises the awards were presented to:

Mrs. Bull "In recognition of Christian character and Christian devotion expressed in a lifetime of service to her family, her church, to her own and her adopted country, and in particular recognition of her service to education in this country and through the Mary Baldwin School in Korea, the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion is awarded, by unanimous vote of this faculty, to Mrs. Libbie Alby Bull of the Class of 1888."

MRS. BULL

Jane Tucker "In recognition of consistent achievement and service, of stable Christian character, and of unassuming and unselfish devotion to the interests and ideals of Mary Baldwin College, the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Medallion is awarded, by unanimous vote of this faculty, to Jane Clay Tucker of the Class of 1953."

JANE TUCKER

We're Irish born—and Irish bred,
And when we die, we'll be Irish dead!
So, rah, rah for our team,
Rah, rah for our team!
Rah, rah for Irish!
Fight! Fight! Fight!

Put on your old plaid bonnet
With Scotch ribbons on it
And we'll hitch those Scotchmen to the fray.
And we'll rack, rack, rack 'em
And we'll sack, sack, sack 'em
Til the end of Judgment Day.

Athletics . . .

JESSIE CARR

President

The Recreation Association

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

A radical change at Mary Baldwin this year becoming effective in September was the emergence of the brand-new Recreation Association, replacing the Athletic Association in the directing of sports and recreational activities on the campus.

The new program was set-up on a two team basis. At the beginning of the year, each student and faculty member was invited to join one of the two campus teams, which after careful consideration became the Scotch Clan and the Irish Clan. The clans at the outset were balanced as closely as possible according to the abilities of the individual members.

The council has felt that the "R. A." has had many features of improvement over the old system. One is that, due to the required participation hours, there have been no inactive members. Any student belonging to the R. A. did so solely because she was interested in recreational participation. Another was the fact of the more nearly balanced competition. Competitive activities, such as hockey, tennis, basketball, and softball have been much more successful under the dual-clan basis than they were under the old set-up. Still a third has been the more accurate way of presenting awards by use of the new point system.

The R. A. this year was on trial. Like any other organization in its embryonic development, it was not perfect. The council, however, feels that the idea is good. They are placing their faith in the R. A., bequeathing to next year's council the task of taking up where they left off, and of guiding the Recreation Association to bigger and better things.

LILY SIMRILL

The Irish clan council members are Lily Simrill, leader, Lib Malone, secretary and Ann Ritchie, publicity manager. The publicity manager is in charge of making posters for pep rallies and for arranging skits for student chapel programs and during the games. The clans have their own meetings and work co-operately with the R. A. council.

Scotch

LIZ DeLOACH

Leader

The Scotch clan council is composed of the leader Liz DeLoach, secretary Connie Headapohl and publicity manager Dottie Hayden. The secretary's job is to keep an accurate account of the points each member has and to record the recreational Fours of activity that each member was required to have per quarter.

Hockey

PATTY PARKE

Scotch Leader

Field hockey at Mary Baldwin is a popular sport in the fall. The Irish and Scotch leaders selected a first and a second team for their respective clans, each team playing three games. The Irish first team won 2 out of 3 and the Scotch second team won all three games. During the season a team was sent to the Allied West Tournament in Lynchburg and won both of their games. Page Smith was chosen by the selection committee to go to the state tournament in Richmond. Joanne Crouch and Pat Lary were the reserves. The 1953 season was "the best ever seen at Mary Baldwin," and was closed by a picnic at the hockey field.

Basketball

Basketball season was started with preliminary practices of both clans, after which each clan was divided into two teams. The Irish Setters had as their captain Jean Fear, while the Irish 'Taters were led by Pat Lary. Patty Tipton was the captain of the Scotch on Rocks; Reba Russell, of the Hop Scotch. Each team played three games and a plaque was presented to the clan that won the most number of games. Cheer leaders were chosen by the clans, as in hockey, and they provided a wholesome attitude toward keeping up the morale and spirit of the players and the spectators during the game.

CELIA WAINWRIGHT

Of much interest here on the Mary Baldwin campus is tennis, both singles and doubles. With the dual-clan system the sport was excellent. In the fall an elimination tournament for singles was held within each clan. The finalists, Alice Jones, Irish, and Patty Tipton, Scotch, then played off the match. The Irish came off with flying colors by the capability of her clan-mate, Alice, over the Scotch rival Patty. The set scores of the tournament was 6-3 and 6-4. The doubles tournament was held in the spring.

Recreational Sports

Recreational sports, badminton, golf, and table tennis provided athletic interests the year round. The season opened with the badminton singles tournament for which there was a big turn out. The finals proved to be an exciting match played between Ann L. Robinson, an Irishman and Dottie Hayden, a Scotchman, in which Dottie was victorious. In the spring our attention was turned to the badminton doubles tournament, to table tennis and golf. Pool, bowling and skating were our non-seasonal activities.

The Modern Dance Group, organized in the fall with the help of Miss Carol Cleveland, has participated in several chapel programs, in the R. Among the most rewarding events of the year was the trip to the Arts Festival at the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina where favorable criticism was received. A Junior Dance Group was formed for the girls who had little or no experience, and were interested in becoming a member of the Dance Group.

The Dolphin members worked hard this year to present a sensational water ballet, "Aqua-Scent-Sations". At the beginning of the swimming season the girls worked on improving their strokes, however, later they learned new stunts and modified old strokes. The club members practiced as a class and received credit for a term of physical education. The water ballet was proof of the accomplishments of the club.

Thanks for the memories.
White columns in the sun
Where shadows used to run;
On steps above the terrace
Ham and Jam watched all our fun.
How lovely it was

Oh, thanks for the memories
Of May Day afternoons
Senior songs and Junes.
Of shepherd's crooks, the last of books
And farewell tears and tunes—
Oh, thank you so much

College Marshals

Joan Nanninga, Class of 1955; Katherine Showalter, Class of 1950; Ann Hunter, Chief Marshal; Jan Mitchell, Class of 1954; Sue Priestman, Class of 1950

and Ushers

Standing: Dotty Hobbs, Claire Fontaine, Gwen Cooper, Celia Wainwright, Betty Drew Pennington, Patty Tipton.

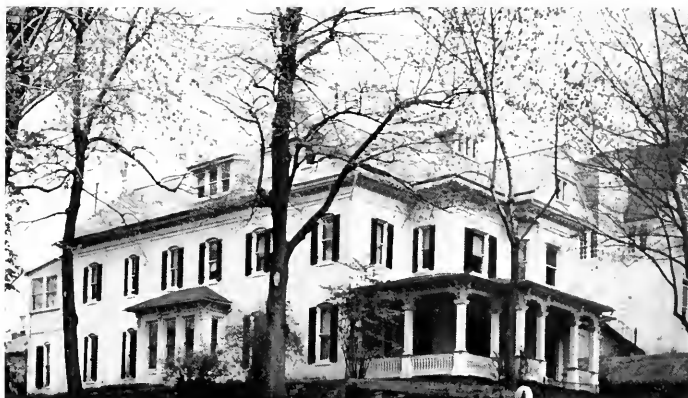

Seated: Sally Lou Smith, Jean Fear, Jay Caldwell, Judy Vann.

The three main traits necessary in an usher or marshal are poise, courtesy, and attractiveness.

Holding a position such as this is an honor, but also hard work. At many important events, such as the King Series, school plays, serious programs of campus organizations, and commencement week-end, these girls always do their best to please the students and guests of the college by seating them and aiding in many other small ways to see that the function runs smoothly.

The Chiet Marshal is elected by the student body from the rising junior or senior class. The other marshals are chosen by their respective classes and they, in turn, choose the ushers from the other classes.

And Before We Close . . .

RIDDLE

Riddle Dorm was the abode of many lively members of the class of '54 and a most eventful year it was. Ono and Fish spent many hours relating the experiences of their European tour. To add to the confusion Jessie climbed in Alma's, Jean's, and Daphne's room and later Jean's amusement reached its climax when she found a squirrel in her bed! Phone calls didn't stop at eleven but were received in the wee hours as well. Birthday parties in the Smoker and delicious eats at B.C.'s kept the crowd healthy and always singing! Christmas brought the marriage of Ann and George and brought rings to Cookie, Ann Morgan and Jessie; while Connie, Betty H. and Pat got theirs in the fall. Need we say more about what the future holds in store for them?

HILL TOP

Hill Top '53-'54— and it's really been a year to remember! The first sight of the beautiful new lounge was something that can never be forgotten along with the additional fixtures that have been added as the year progressed, for example, the perpetual bridge game in the middle of the floor and the statuette on one end of the sofa resembling Dolly Adair. Long will we remember our two seniors Judy, our vice-president, and our president, Wini, whom we can hear singing now "When Frances Dances With Me — Golly Gee!" The siege of the cats and skunks, the freshman jive sessions in Marilyn and Mary Sue's room, the election of Ann Wilder as President of lower 2, the cake of ice in the bathtub, the gay jack-in-the-box (designed and made by Frances) that adorned the front door at Christmas, the cascade of plaster in Shelby's and Ann's room, the plumbing, the marriage of the "littlest" freshman, June Stauber, and the "Chlorophyl Kid" who plagued Martha are but a few of the instances that will bring smiles upon being remembered by the inhabitants of Hill Top.

SKY HIGH

Sky High, better known as the House of Fragrance-Chanel No. Skunk, started off the year with a bang. Ann Goode's first roommate a tiny grey mouse met its "Waterloo" and its "corpus delecti" brought screams from many. The Christmas party with Irene as guest of honor was a huge success. Sally, who hails from Long Island, had to do as Santa Claus since we couldn't get one from the North Pole. And a common occurrence was girls hanging from every window, seeking to frighten away intruders. And the entire dorm laughed at the expense of Georgie and Skeeter when their room was filled from the floor to the ceiling with newspapers. Wonder whose "brain storm" that was? And never will we forget the two Seniors—Sis, our wonderful house president and plumber, and Widgee, the Senior class president. To complete this wonderful year was Charlotte's broken-down bed, Mary Jane's visit to Riddle (?), Ginger and Martha moving in with us, and the perpetual music throughout the dorm.

McCLUNG

"Oh, the girls from McClung... represent the classes '4 thru '7" And they do, with all the unique personality of each class. There's the tallest freshman and the sophomore from the Congo, a junior with the highest grades college-wide, and seniors ranging from the earliest stage of human life (it was discovered at a dorm party) to the student government V. P. We had the routine excitement of all dorms ... lounge fires, windows up-doors shut-lights off—in firedrill, prowlers that materialized into night watchmen, pins from SMA, and phone calls from Texas, firecrackers in the hall, people in the shower.... clothed. There have been birthday parties.....like Raymonde's with a French birthday cake-house and loud get-togethers where a few clouts on the ceiling with a hockey stick sometimes bring quiet, and excited huddles, when Jane Peirce got her ring.. And the solving of problems when lost articles are dredged for in Henni's closet or Betsy's cabinet, or when everyone remembers the other fifty-nine people in the dorm. And long will each one of us remember M. C.'s State of dress in the lounge, Jan's job application, Lily's crusade for the club, and Magdelena's query: "Who are these Norman Cousins? Do they sing or do they dance?"

MEMORIAL

Shaw and her brood of sophomores and freshman kept Memorial in the stew. It really boiled right before Christmas. This we heard coming from the pot, better known as the lounge, "Attention!" The first meeting of the Memorial Branch of the Sherlock Holmes Detective Agency will now come to order." Then to the strains of Dragnet, we saw Chief Shaw rise and give badges to all the faithful sleuths. This, our Christmas party based on true incident, was the topic of conversation for weeks afterwards. We can also be proud to say that all the freshman officers with the exception of two, reside in our fair dorm as do Shannon, Mary Mac and Sally who were elected to the Beauty Section. We were sorry that Sally had to leave us at semester and do hope she will visit us soon. We also had Alice Jones who won the tennis tournament for the Irish. Nor will we ever forget the gathering in Nan's and Bryant's room, nor Norma's and Lois' trip to Annapolis, Dutchie's gay times, nor Nancy Oliver breaking her toe right before going home, nor Nancy Hayes and her attire for Fancy Dress. She gave some of us a sneak preview. These and the rest of the gang have made this year best of all years. And that we all agree on.

CHAPEL

Big things come in small packages and that holds true of Chapel Dorm. The sixteen Southerners gave Sue Barker, the only Yankee, a hard time, but she managed all right. Ann Kennedy proved her efficiency at hair cutting by even making a small profit. Helen's portrayal of Santa Claus left Paula so excited that she departed for the airport and her fateful flight to Dallas in her bedroom slippers. Aline's regular letter brought thoughts of a future doctor; and Betty Drew dreamed of far away lands and her beautiful red roses.

Mettie, Hilda, Sue Boss and Gussie were always on hand when Given returned with cookies after a weekend spent at home or with Jim. Jean was always getting her beauty sleep but would jump up quickly when the confusion reigned as a result of Fran trying to sing the numerous requests. Thus in spite of the noise from the lounge, and the continual "Shhhhh" we nevertheless concluded that it was a great year!

LITTLE HOUSE

Little House was inhabited this year by Kemp—president of the Junior Class—and her roommate Gale. An open house they gave at the first of the year in their little brick house was such great fun, that frequent visits from the other junior class members continued throughout the year.

LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolic of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
